The Young Men of New York. Young America had a glorious ratifiestion in New York City on the 22d .-The crowd was dense; the feeling earnest and deep.

Greeley made the speech of the night. His subject was, the issues of the day .-These he embodied in in a few introductory remarks and the following terse res-

"Ms. CHAIRMAN-The Past is dead: let the dead bury it, and let its mourners, Lard, if they will, go about the streets; while Tallow, we devote ourselves to the living Present, with its pressing duties, its vast re- Coffee, sponsibilities, and its glorious hopes.— Butter, Simply calling your attention to the stu- Eggs, & dos. pendous developments of official fraud, Molasses, & gal., plation, and theft recently made be- Whiskey, fore Investigating Committees at Wash- Buckwheat Flour, $2 100 ha. ington and in the Federal offices in this Salt, Peack, city, I ask you to unite with me in this Nails, $2 100 hs.

We wish we had room for Mr. Greeler's speech. It is a capital one; just the one demanded by the hour. But we cannot refrain from giving what he says Before A. Taylor, J. P., Iowa Township, Counof Hamlin, whom the Herald charged to be a Know Nothing. He gives the facts -let them be remembered. Mr. Greeley remarked in regard to Hamlin :

for Vice President. He is a very nnassuming, mild-mannered man, but a very able man, a man of few words. He was a Free Soil Democrat till 1854, voting the Democratic party on all other questions. They could not turn him out of merce up the time they made the Cincin. ty sold to pay the same and cost. nati Platform and nominated James Buchanan. Then he came out and said, You put me in as a Democrat, and I have ceased to be a Democrat ; I am going with the Republicans.' tion was one of the most exciting that has been held in Berlin precinct for years, and when the polls were closed the Demecrats felt certain that their stronghold was still in their possession. But the counting of the votes told the following

For John F. Elliott, Republican 152; L. G. Montague, Democrat, 115-Republican majority, 87! The Democratic majority in 1858 was twenty-two. So we have already gained fifty-nine votes in Berlin precinct, and we are informed that the prospects for further gains are excelingly flattering. Good for the Republicans of Berlin!

FRANK BLAIR RESIGNS .- The Missouri Democrat publishes the following dispatch from Frank Blair, which was read at the Centre Market meeting, held to congratulate him :

"WASHINGTON, June 12, 1860. To Capt. Bart. Abel, Ch. Cen. Com. I intend to resign at the end of the sessien. I made this contest to expose the frauds of the bogus Democrats, and return to the people the right of electing their own Representatives."
